ABOUT GAUCHO

Gaucha reflects the passion, people, lifestyle, culture and rich food and wine offering of Modern Argentina.

The vision of the gaucha (Argentine cowboy) tending to cattle grazing in the lush meadows of 'Las Pampas' set to the backdrop of bountiful vineyards in the foothills of the dramatic, mineral rich Andes mountain range is emblematic of Argentina. Add to that the iconic asado BBQ and modern tango shows of Buenos Aires and you will find where Gaucha draws its inspiration. Transported to the UK, the restaurant group marks an authentic setting to enjoy the world's most tender (carbon-neutral) steaks and Latin American cuisine, all accompanied by the UK's most expansive selection of indigenous Malbec wines.

Gaucha began in 1994 at Swallow Street, Piccadilly, London. The restaurant group has grown to 20 restaurants and has enjoyed both public and critical acclaim in recent years, most latterly winning CITY AM, Business of the Year, Springboard, 'Sustainable Restaurant of the Year' and is currently shortlisted for 2023 Catey's 'Restaurant Group of the Year'.
